

Berwick
LODGE

Dazzle your senses

Fulfilling a vision

When Berwick Lodge was built in the late 1890s as a private manor house its imposing structure, and beautiful rose and woodland gardens attracted admirers from all over the South West. Following the two world wars the property had several owners and gradually slipped into disrepair and neglect.

On Valentine's Day in 2005, Sarah and Fevzi Arkan saw the property for sale and fell in love with it. They bought it, fuelled by a passionate desire and an extraordinary vision, to completely restore it to its former glory and transform it into a very special hotel.

The couple devoted the next five long years to personally restoring and renovating the property before finally opening Berwick Lodge to the public in autumn 2009, having realised their dream to create a unique and luxurious boutique hotel and restaurant.

Dazzle your senses

Berwick Lodge provides a totally unique experience, located high on a hill surrounded by 15 acres of private garden and woodland, yet incredibly just 5 minutes from the M4/M5 motorway and 15 minutes from Bristol City Centre.

The beautifully restored manor house hotel offers some of the finest dining in the South West, plus luxurious accommodation with its 10 stunning suites and bedrooms, an elegant conference facility and a lively cookery school run by Berwick's top chefs.

As a privately owned and run hotel the service is as you'd expect, impeccable, yet relaxed and friendly. A visit to Berwick Lodge will quite simply, dazzle your senses!

Tantalise the taste buds

Berwick Lodge's fine dining restaurant delivers an effortlessly relaxed and elegant ambience, providing the perfect setting for truly inspirational food. Head Chef and Partner Chris Wicks runs the stunning restaurant. Chris has an outstanding reputation and together with his talented team will dazzle the taste buds with a range of fabulous dishes inspired by classic European cuisine.

The regularly changing à la carte menu has been designed to offer the freshest seasonal flavours and the best local ingredients.

To complement the fabulous cuisine, our highly experienced Sommelier will guide you through Berwick's extensive wine list, which is one of the finest in the region and includes over 30 different champagnes and a range of premier, grand cru and grand cru classe wines.

Relax and rejuvenate

Berwick Lodge exudes luxury. Each of its ten sumptuous suites, doubles and single ensuite rooms, has been individually designed with its very own 'signature', reflecting the historic richness and elegance of the Anatolian period.

Relaxation and comfort are a priority, offering guests all the best in modern luxuries, combined with good old-fashioned comfort and service.

Berwick's friendly and highly professional staff will delight in making your stay truly memorable. There is quite simply, nowhere else quite like Berwick Lodge.
